

Injustice

Plainsong melody (Veni Emmanuel) 15th c, arranged JH Arnold 20th c, tweaked by Warren Mars 2020
 Words: Warren Mars 2020

♩ -65 Em G Am Em G Em Am D Em D

1. This world in which we live, which we de- signed, was made with care and should be fair and just. Yet
 2. The peo-ple from an out-cast group who find each time they are not gi - ven a fair go. By
 3. A man es-pou-sing doc-trine that was fine when he was young, finds his ca - reer des - troyed, by
 4. A wo-man finds cor - rup - tion at her work and blows the whis - tle, do - ing what is right. She
 5. A wor-ker slaves for years to climb the tree and for the busi - ness al - ways does what's best, but
 6. A wo-man takes a mort-gage that is high to buy a house her fam - ly think is sweet, then
 7. In court a man's de - fence is dis - al - lowed while his op - po - nent leads a pack of lies. The
 8. A go-vernment e - lec - ted by the peo - ple of this na - tion has the right to rule. But
 9. The man who lets a wo - man in his house, to share their lives was al - ways his in - tent. Af -
 10. A wo-man that has lived a heal - thy life is can - cer struck and ta - ken far too soon. Her

Am G D Am D Em Am Em Am D G D still we find we cop a raw deal, our as - pi - ra - tions ground in - to the dust. U - pre - ju - dice their es - say is de - nied, des - pite the wor - thy me - rit that they show. Bi - bul - lies of a fash - ion - ab - le group, with no res - pect for what has gone be - fore. So finds her ho - nest ef - fort goes for naught, and she is sacked for put - ting up a fight. A - sees him - self passed o - ver for a nong, in - fe - ri - or but al - ways bet - ter dressed. It's in - t'rest rates climb sky - ward o - ver - night, and she is thro - wen out on - to the street. Des - judge does not al - low him a fair trial, and scour - ges him the bet - ter to chas - tise. Un - pet - ty po - li - tics can block their way, and make the law - ful lea - der look a fool. Dis - ter two years the law - yers take his house, and leave be - hind a tra - gic mal - con - tent. "The dad mean - while, still smokes at eigh - ty five, and goes to bed as drunk as a ba - boon. Bad

G Bm EmBm Am Bm Em G Am7G Am Bm Em fair! Un - fair! So - ci - e - ty must fix this faul - ty sys - tem which we need to trust. ased! Bi - ased! With - out a doubt each per - son should bejudged on how they reap and sow. rude! So thick! In - to - le - rance is writ - ten on the fa - ces of the thought po - lice. wake! A - wake! It's for the good of all cor - rup - tion must be brought in - to the light. wrong! It's wrong! The com - pa - ny will not be bet - ter off em - pl - ying this great pest. pair! Des - pair! A per - son's home should not be at the mer - cy of the rich e - lite. just! Un - just! A judge is not a god! To give the law free rein is most un - wise. grace! Dis - grace! The peo - ple's will a - bove the stench of the po - li - ti - cal cess - pool. thief!", "The thief!", he screams with all his might, "She ne - ver e - ven put in half a cent!"

 luck! Bad luck! Try as you might there's no ac - coun - ting for the luck be - neath the moon.