

Utopia

Thanks To William Blake who wrote the poem that started all this.

Words : Warren Mars, 2012

Music : Charles Hubert Hastings Parry, 1916

Arranged: Parry/Mars, 2004

$\text{♩} = 60$

Soprano

Piano

1

And did our

5

feet in an-cient time, walk out from un-der jun - gle tall? And wa-ter, fa - mine, beasts and cold, did we not face and beat them all? And did our light of gen - ius true shine forth at last from dar-kened years? And was U - to - pi - a dreamed of then, a - mongst tra - va - il filth and tears?

10

15

20

wise?

When we were threa - tened with the
We have the pow'r to make things gun, sub-ju - ga - tion, spoil and fear, did we not stand a - gainst the foe, and scrap for right and op - ti - mise this world for life. Give na-ture back her pro - per share, op - pose the 30

25

all that we held dear? Shall we bow down to ig - no - rance, to su - per - sti-tion, greed and greed though it cause strife. Be vi - gi - lant, con-si-der all, and make things go the way we

rit. -----

35

lies? Or shall we fight for sci - ence fact, ho-lis-tic view and actions planned, and we shall hold U-to - pi - a, in Ar-da's rich and va-ried land!