

Welcome To Orithia

Melody: Rowland Huw Pritchard "Hyfrydol" 1820

Words: Warren Mars 2018

Arrangement trad slightly modified by Warren Mars

♩ = 120

Piano RH

Piano LH

1. Wel - come child un - to O - ri - thi - a; wel - come to your
 2. Wel - come child to Earth, our pla - net or - bit - ting Sol, our
 3. Wel - come child to a world of a - ni - mals: mo - bile life - forms of
 4. Wel - come child to a world of veg' - ta - bles: sta - tion - 'ry life - forms that
 5. Wel - come child to the human so - ci - e - ty, realm where most of your

7

brand new life. A - no - ther Sho - ku of four di - men - sions, G - 2 - V star. A ball of si - li - cate rocks in com - pres - sion sur - which you are one. They all must eat o - ther life to sur - vive, it co - ver the world. They can cre - ate their own form of nu - tri - tion; by life will be spent. Much de - pends on the good - will of o - thers, which three of space and one of time. Here you live a - roun - ding a li - quid i - ron core. Out on the crust there are may seem cruel but that is our way. Some eat veg' - ta - bles, har - ves - ting at light from our be fa - ther the Sun. Yes, they are may, at times, be cruel and un - fair. Still we will do ten and our gain ligh - ter some used best con - nec - ted to mo - le - cules, a - ni - mals, hou - ses by plea - sant and Velas li - quid some us decent in quid eat and all its en - ti - re - ty. fine - ly ground sand, a fun - gi, bac - te - ri - a a - ni - mal friends. With - fair in our dea - lings with you.

13

19 2

25

This life is diff' rent but still some - how si - mi - lar: a brea - tha - ble ni - tro - gen ox - y - gen at - mos - phere, All are our friends as they grew up be - side us, be out them we can't live so they keep them a - bun - dant, di - Do un - to us as we do un - to you and the.

29

new sea - sons, per - spec - tive on all you can be. sure you re - spect them in a glo - ri - ous moon. verse, dis - tri - bu - ted, all that you do. Church will sup - port you for heal - thy and free. days.